The National Assembly of Pakistan adopted the Constitution.n on behalf of, the provisions of the Pakistan Commissions of Inquiry Act 1956 and the election of the President. As follows from the Pakistan Constitutional Court Act 1956, the courts designated to hear cases involving matters falling within the competence of the Council of People's Representatives were convened at its request (as opposed to the case referred to in paragraph 1 of article 14 of the 1955 Act G.). In accordance with paragraph 2 of Art. 18 of the 1956 Act: The decision to establish a Commission of Inquiry can only be made by a referendum. The commission is being created to investigate, guided by an amendment to paragraph 3 of Art. 54 of the Law of 1956. However, in accordance with Part 2, Clause 5, Art. 49 of the Law of 1957, the Commission is not an executive body and acts only within the powers of the Council of People's Deputies (decisions of the Commission on Investigations are made only by the Council of People's Deputies). The Commission may send its opinions to the Council of People's Deputies, to the court and on the basis of the opinions of the Council of People's Representatives to the House of Representatives, but does not interfere in the administration of Pakistan. The Constitution of Pakistan established as members of the Research Commission: 1. The President of Pakistan; 2. The President of the Senate, where the President presides; 3. 5 members - winners of the Nobel Peace Prize, winners of the highest state civil or other award, awarded this award for work in the field of the humanities or for outstanding achievements in the field of art; 4. As judges - Doctor of Law, Doctor of Law in the Humanities and Social Sciences, Doctor of Jurisprudence. According to Art. Section 40 Â§ 8 of the Police Act 1956 empowers the Commission to investigate crimes committed or committed while on the police force and in civil cases to establish charges and adjudicate, as well as in litigation to resolve economic disputes. In accordance with Art. 11 of the Law of 1960, the members of the Commission were elected from the entire police force (clause 4, article 42 of the Law of 1959), with the right of an advisory vote. The commission consisted of 6 members. Members of the Commission continued to be confirmed by the President of Pakistan and the Senate after a six-month secret deliberation. They replaced the pre-existing judicial chamber, which included judges elected by the House of Pakistani People's Representatives. The entry into office of each of the members of the Commission was approved by the President of Pakistan. The commission was a constitutional collegiate body, that is, the police and judicial institutions were not subordinate to it. According to the Constitution of Pakistan, a meeting of the Commission could only be convened by one
