Download:Gastroschisis Is Associated with a More Severe Phenotype of Necrotizing Enterocolitis in VLBW Infants. The purpose of this study was to compare characteristics of necrotizing enterocolitis (NEC) associated with gastroschisis and with other bowel abnormalities in very low birth weight (VLBW) infants. We retrospectively evaluated a cohort of VLBW infants with NEC or other gastrointestinal perforation who were born over a 4-year period. Gastroschisis cases were compared with controls who had a different gastrointestinal perforation, as well as with cases of NEC without gastroschisis. Of the 95 VLBW infants (gestational age, 24.8 ± 2.3 weeks) who developed NEC, 35 (37%) had associated gastroschisis. Gastroschisis infants were significantly more likely to be female (47% versus 29%, $P = .03$) and had a significantly lower birth weight (1288 ± 549 g versus 1573 ± 582 g, $P < .001$). Q: How to change the value of a single row in a DataGridView and have it change all grid columns as well I want to change the value of a single row in a DataGridView. I want to do this by selecting a cell in one row, making the cell
