Westmeath. The camp is run by Westmeath County Council and benefits over 40 children from all over the county. They have 1 group that is 5-7 years old and 1 group that is 7-9 years old. The kids are doing outdoor skills, arts and crafts, singing, swimming, sport & games. It's a great opportunity for the kids to get out in the fresh air, meet new friends and have some fun in the sun! Our family members were given the opportunity to volunteer to work with the children in a small group over 2 half days where we focused on the 7-9 year olds group. We ran into a few brilliant volunteers who were eager to volunteer their time, the main one being David Jennings (Camp Life Director). David told me that he really wanted to get the kids involved in their community through volunteering and in a way they can even earn a few tokens along the way. The kids involved in the camp were simply amazing, most with very little experience with camping, fishing, etc.. These children can be very opinionated, having to listen to adults giving them advice and trying to control them was a bit frustrating, it's like a little child trying to stand up to an adult. However what they lacked in experience they more than made up for with determination and persistence. The best part for us was to see the eager little faces light up when they saw the gifts they were given that day. We also had a great time checking out the activities available on the camp, the kids participating in a boating race were a great way to keep the kids occupied in the boat throughout the afternoon and for some of
