FIFA is proud to be the only game to have implemented Player Created Behaviour, from the mechanical skill of professional players. Players now offer a new level of challenge by dynamically influencing their style of play, while also adding an element of unpredictability to match play. The FIFA player-created behaviours will be even further enhanced by Player Impact Effects, including player powers, which introduce dramatic tactical twists to the standard game. For the very first time, these powers and tweaks can be used in a wider variety of ways than ever before. Goalkeeper powers will be available to help disrupt goal scoring chances, and certain players will have access to new passing and shooting powers to set up opportunities for their teammates. Key Features: FIFA Soccer Moves – “HyperMotion Technology” combines 22 real-life players playing a complete, high-intensity football match in motion capture suits. The data collected from player movements, tackles, aerial duels and on-ball actions is used to power Fifa 22 Serial Key gameplay. Real Player-Created Behaviour – Players now offer a new level of challenge by dynamically influencing their style of play. By selecting how to physically move, an experienced FIFA player can now choose a more offensive or defensive tactic, or use the power of Player Impact Effects to set up opportunities for their teammates. Motion Maps – The new interactive on-screen display shows player runs, passes, shots, saves, dribbles, recoveries and ball control to provide easy and instant information on the performance of each player throughout the match. The on-screen display is also augmented by dynamic highlights and player statistics (e.g. goals, assists, red cards, etc.). The newly designed midfield layers across the six-yard box show tactical info, including direction of play, passing patterns and defensive coverages. Player Created Behaviour –

The new Player Created Behaviour system adds a new level of challenge by influencing not just your style of play, but your tactics and decisions as well. Autonomous and Easy Tactical Modifications – A brand-new system allows you to make modifications without having to enter the Playbuilder. On the fly, you can instruct your players to alter their style of play and take on new roles. You can also control formations and substitutions for personal use during the match, and there will be more than 1,000 customised formations and 4,000 customised formations saved by players that you can use in your own custom

FIFA 22 brings the world's greatest player to life like never before, featuring new animations, authentic player behaviours and cutting-edge gameplay innovations across every mode. The year is 1987, and you're just moments away from kick-off in the UEFA Champions League Semi Final between Real Madrid and FC Barcelona. The game's pitch physics are finally fleshed out. The player jump is almost as nuanced as in real life, and the ball's trajectory is immediately responsive to the player's every movement. The next generation of player models has arrived. The Real Madrid club's iconic 4-3-1-2 formation is present in the game, and the members of the squad are exactly how you remember them, down to the finest detail. Players have evolved Now players have a range of in-game behaviours and reactions that will improve the depth of your experience. Their movement and movement patterns differ to how they behave in real-life, and the speed at which they move is more accurately determined. Players will make better decisions and play their natural game, which will help you master the intuitive gameplay that has always been a hallmark of FIFA. Contextual Awareness The in-game intelligence of the ball and the player now work together. This includes a detailed system of context-sensitive intelligent moves and animations based on the actions that you choose to take. If a player is about to pass the ball, the system will immediately detect this intent and decide what type of pass to perform, based on the context of the situation. This means that the system will be more intelligent about which options are available to you. It will change your cross to a long ball if needed, and will be more aware of what it can do on the other side of the pitch.

All-new match-changing dynamics Inspired by the intelligence of your own club, FIFA will offer new dynamic, match-changing circumstances. These include potential new players arriving on the pitch and major weather events, which may affect your game in unexpected ways.

Dynamic AI Our new AI brings unprecedented intelligence to the pitch, driving authentic and fluid game play. There will also be hundreds of new animations and natural behaviour. The game's new behaviour engine also allows for greater player control, more fluid and accurate player positions, more responsive player movement and more responsive AI-controlled defenders. We've also enhanced the player controls allowing for much greater player control and much more realistic movement
