by the Attorney General's Office, this opinion addresses whether California's former "merry-go-round" firearms law, former Penal Code

---

section 12101.1, precludes the importation and sale of antique firearms and firearms manufactured in California. First, assuming the Attorney General has the authority to restrict importation, that restriction must be for the purpose of controlling the firearms market, and not merely for the purpose of making it more difficult for anyone to purchase a particular weapon or make a particular group feel harmed. Second, we read former section 12101.1's requirement that the importation be for purposes of "hunting" or "fishing" to be a requirement that one of the stated purposes of the import be the use of the firearm for a stated purpose. Such a requirement is different from a prohibition of importation based on a potential purchaser's proclivity to use the weapon for a different purpose, or to any other purpose. As a matter of law, this does not prohibit the importation of antique firearms, firearms of any manufacture, or firearms for any purpose. We affirm the judgment of the court of appeal. Facts and Procedural Background Calexico Police Sergeant Ray Hidalgo purchased a Remington
