The Charlotte Observer reports two people were killed when an SUV crashed into a car that was being chased by police Friday. The teenager died at a hospital after being transported in the car. Authorities would not say where the bullet came from, other than to say it was not fired from a police officer. In a statement released by the school, district officials said the 19-year-old driver was shot in the chest and could not be revived at the scene. The passenger of the SUV, 18, was also shot. It wasn't clear where the bullet came from. The player in the SUV was identified as senior running back Nakita Jones. Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Detective Ashley Boyette told the Observer that the reason for the chase is not clear. Video tweeted by NBC Charlotte show the aftermath of the crash. "A car careened through a red light and struck the back of a Nissan Sentra at a high rate of speed, bending the car on its side in the intersection," the newspaper reported. Police said the pursuit began as a routine traffic stop about 11 a.m. Friday on Interstate 85 near Trade Street in Raleigh. They said the driver continued to flee at speeds over 100 mph and led police for about 20 miles. After the pursuit ended, the driver crashed into a car stopped at a red light, police said. A second driver, who was not hurt, helped
