What's New in the Music Rescue (formerly PodUtil)?

Music Rescue has now been renamed to PodUtil to follow the latest Apple naming convention. PodUtil is a complete iPod (and now iPhone and iPod touch) management program. It has been designed to make your iPod work to it's full potential. You can customize PodUtil to fit your own way of managing your music collection. PodUtil is now delivered as a Mac application. If you have used the Windows version before you should find the Mac version to be much easier to use. A new interface replaces the iPod Viewer. This GUI is a much simpler and easier to use interface than the old iTunes iPod Viewer. PodUtil is able to perform a variety of tasks for you, including: - backup iPod music to hard disk - sync iPod music with iTunes - transcode iPod music to other formats (mpeg, ogg, etc.) - play iPod music on various audio devices - play iPod music on a computer - play iPod videos - burn iPod music to CD (MP3 CD or Audio CD) - organize music into playlists - convert iPod music into other formats - record music from your iPod - download podcasts from iTunes Store - generate track lists and study playlists - transfer music, videos and podcasts from the iPod to a computer Music Rescue (formerly PodUtil) Help Files: PodUtil 2.0 Help Files: podutil-2.0.1a\Documentation Notes about help: The documentation is in PDF format.
