Vladimir is a name of Russian origin, and is possibly a transliteration of the Italian name Vincenzo, the Latin Vincius, or Vincenzo, all meaning 'from Vinci'. It is also a variant of the name Vincenzo, and is the German name Vincenz. Vladimir is also a Polish name, a Catalan name, a Romanian name, a Swedish name and a Finnish name. It is also a Latinized version of the given name Salome, possibly in reference to their known 'long-legged' appearance, or possibly in reference to their importance in the Bible. The name may be pronounced with either a short or long 'e' sound. Vladimir is generally not a name that parents are looking to use for a boy; due to its association with the name Vladimir Lenin and the Soviet Union.
